Net Impact Consulting

A pro-bono student-lead consulting team.

Who are the consultants?

Cal Poly students across all majors who are passionate about sustainable business practices compose our group of consultants. Each consultant brings a unique perspective and expertise stemming from the variety of majors interested in consulting.

Consultants worked with Lark Ellen Farm to improve its B-Impact score and organize a collaboration with Cal Poly senior projects.

Who have we worked with?

Past clients that Net Impact Consulting has worked on at one + projects with.
